The Dr. Robert J. Munnelly Memorial Scholarship was established by the St. Vincent de Paul Society in Nahant in memory of its beloved President. Dr. Munnelly was a longtime Nahant resident, distinguished veteran of the U.S. Army, and lifelong educator. He served as a classroom teacher, Northeastern University professor, and Superintendent of Schools in Saugus and Reading. This $500 scholarship award is given as a tribute to his commitment to curriculum development and arts education for all students. He always took a personal interest in students, enthusiastically encouraging them as they followed their educational passions.
